

..... Cut lines
----- Fold line

Department of Conservation
Te Papa Atawhai

PŪKEKO

Pukeko is one of our most recognised native birds with its distinctive blue and red colouring and habit of feeding on the ground. It is found all over New Zealand in both town and country, but the pukeko is most at home in swampy ground amongst reeds and rushes.

www.doc.govt.nz