

Kōura | Freshwater Crayfish

FUN FACTS

- When kōura are alarmed or fighting they can do a quick backward jump by flicking their tail – it's funny to watch!
- Kōura stay hidden during the day, moving mostly at night (nocturnal)
- Kōura are a valued and abundant mahinga kai species in many places