

Quiz: How conservation friendly is your cat?

Read each statement, give your cat one point for every true answer and then add up your score. The cat in this quiz might be your pet, or one that comes into your backyard.

Statements	Score
Your cat can't have kittens. A vet desexed it.
Your cat is fed good food at regular times.
Your cat doesn't go on holiday with you. It goes to a cattery.
Your cat stays inside at night.
Your cat wears a collar with bells that jingle.
Your cat can't find a place to hide that is close to where the birds feed or drink.
Your cat can't climb all the trees near your backyard.
Your cat has special toys to play with.
Your cat hardly ever hunts
Total score

Check out your cat's score

1 – 4 point(s)
Your cat isn't conservation friendly yet. It will catch birds, lizards and weta quite often.
5 – 8 points
Your cat could be a little friendlier. It will still catch some birds and lizards.
9 points
You have a conservation friendly cat! That's better for the native wildlife near you.