

Komiti Taoka Tuku Iho Application Form

PLEASE NOTE THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION

- 1) If you are not a member of Ngāi Tahu, you will also need a permit under the Wildlife Act 1953. See the 'Permits' section of the DOC website or talk to your local DOC office for more information.
- 2) If materials are to be posted, this will be charged back to you.
- 3) If approval is granted, the following conditions may apply:
 - a photograph of the project/taonga to be sent on completion,
 - the return of surplus materials or guidelines relating to the disposal of excess materials,
 - if gathering materials, a monitoring report on state of the resource.
- 3) Exporting whole or parts of protected species may require a permit under the Wildlife Act, Marine Mammals Act, or CITIES legislation. Not holding the required permits may lead to the material or item being seized by customs, either in New Zealand or in the country you are entering.
- 4) There may be risks of infection or other safety issues arising from using cultural materials. Precautions should be taken to minimise this risk. People using cultural materials do so at their own risk.
