

‘Battle for our Birds’ is a programme to protect our native wildlife from predators.

Heavy seeding of beech, rimu and white pine in our native forests this year will again drive higher than normal rodent and stoat numbers that will prey on endangered birds.

Predator plague cycle

