F. Fees

Section 60B of the Conservation Act enables the Department to recover all direct and indirect costs from an Applicant to process an application regardless of whether the application is approved or declined. If at any stage an application is withdrawn the Department will invoice the Applicant for the costs incurred by the Department up to that point. Applicants are required to pay the processing fees within 28 days of receiving an invoice. The Director-General is entitled to recover any unpaid fees as a debt.

We will send you an estimate of fees before they are incurred and invoice you once we have processed your application. Please contact us for further information.

Waiving or Reducing Fees:

The Director-General of Conservation has discretion to reduce or waive processing fees. ✓

You may apply for a fee waiver or reduction if you provide information to the permissions team about how your application meets at least one of these criteria:

- The activity will make a direct contribution to management
- The activity will support or contribute to the Department's priority outcomes – which are stated in the Department's 2013-2017 Statement of Intent (available on the DOC website)
- There will be other non-commercial public benefits from the permission (if approved)
- Activity covered by the authorisation (other than research, collection or educational activities) will make a contribution to the management of, or the public interest in, the lands that are covered by the permit

Paying fees:

The Department will ordinarily invoice the applicant for processing fees after a decision has been made on the application, but in some cases interim invoices will be issued.
