

Concessions Non-Adventure Activities Risk Matrix

Natural hazard risk subject to sudden onset and less management option	- Guiding around volcanoes / lahars - Walking / tramping / trekking, multi-day (includes Guiding) (Walk to see a natural hazard where volcanic or landslide natural hazards exists above a defined level)	- Coasteering *Sailing (Rockfall and mountain flying risks)	- Alpine hiking / tramping - Hang gliding, paragliding, and other adventure aviation (Mountain guiding where there is a mixture of technical risk and natural hazard risk)
Natural hazard risk where management options exist or lower risk sudden onset	- Skiing inside patrolled ski area - Chartered boat trips (activity controlled by regulator) - Swimming with seals and dolphins - Snorkelling (Avalanche and weather hazards, e.g. summer guiding on Tongariro Alpine Crossing)	*Skiing outside patrolled ski area - Cross country skiing / ski touring - Coasteering - Sailing *Horse trekking *Mountain biking (Avalanche and weather hazards, mountain flying risk, e.g. winter guiding fall hazards on Tongariro Alpine Crossing)	*Caving *Canoeing / Kayaking - Heli-biking (Minimal rockfall risk but water and weather hazards)
Lower natural Hazard risk, including slow onset	- Walking / tramping / trekking up to 8 hours (includes Guiding) *Fishing land-based - Cycles, non-specialist (paths, roads)	*4WD or quad bike - Motorcycle - Mountain running	*Ropes / Challenge courses (Technical risks associated with use of ropes at height, limited or no natural risks)
	Low technical risk	Moderate technical risk from fall protection and or transport	High technical risk from fall or transport

Denotes an activity that could transition from being classified as Non-Adventure to an Adventure Activity. Transition would be based on the Concessionaire assessment of the activity against the WKS-17 Adventure Activities Decision Tree. Adventure Activities need to obtain a safety audit certificate and be registered on the Adventure Activity Operator register with WorkSafe New Zealand.*