Talbot Forest Scenic Reserve

Geraldine township

This small forested reserve of 26 hectares has large matai, kaikahikatea and tōtara, which are centuries old. There is a network of short walks through the reserve, some of which connect with Timaru District Council walkways. Talbot Forest can be accessed from Hislop, Totara, Davies, Tripp or Bridge streets.

Waihi Gorge Scenic Reserve

13.5 km from Geraldine

Waihi Gorge Scenic Reserve is made up of 62 hectares on the northern bank of the Waihi River. There are no walking tracks through the reserve, though there is a campground and picnic spots by the river. The reserve is on Waihi Gorge Rd. Follow Main North Rd (72) from Geraldine and turn left onto Woodbury Rd (2.5 km). After Woodbury, the road becomes Waihi Gorge Rd.

Orari Gorge Scenic Reserve

15 km from Geraldine

This 80-hectare scenic reserve has regenerating bush containing some large kānuka. There is a circular walk through the forest and a campground. The reserve is opposite the Glenburn Youth Camp on Yates Rd. Take Main North Rd (72) 4.5 km out of Geraldine and turn left on Tripp Settlement Rd. Follow this for 7.5 km before turning left onto Yates Rd.

Peel Forest Park Scenic Reserve

22 km from Geraldine

Peel Forest covers 783 hectares around Little Mt Peel/Huatakaerekere. There are extensive walking tracks through the forest and up onto the mountain, as well as a privately run campground. There is a separate brochure for this area that details all the walks.

Pioneer Park Conservation Area

32 km from Geraldine

This 390-hectare conservation area has links with the early settlers of the district and has a wide variety of native and exotic trees. There are two walks as well as a campground.

Talbot Forest Scenic Reserve

Talbot Forest Scenic Reserve is the last remnant of an extensive forest that once covered the Geraldine area. The first reserve was created in 1879 and was added to in 1886 and 1962. There are four short walks through the forest which interconnect with roads around the reserve. The walks in the forest may be extended by connecting with Timaru District Council walkways.

Kahikatea Track

683 metres, 10 minutes

This track connects Hislop Street with Totara Street picnic area. There are some fine kaikahikatea trees at the Hislop Street end where the land is wetter. Kaikahikatea can grow to be the tallest tree in the forest, reaching 40 metres.

Tōtara Track

302 metres, 5 minutes

This track connects Totara Street with Tripp Street picnic area. Next to the track is the largest tōtara in the reserve which is estimated to be 800 years old. Tōtara were used by Māori to build canoes. A large tree could be made into a waka taua (war canoe) capable of holding 100 warriors.

Reservoir Track

225 metres, 5 minutes

This track connects Tripp Street picnic area with Bridge Street. The picnic area is a good starting point from which to explore the reserve. The iron gates on Bridge Street mark the old main entrance into the reserve.

Matai Track

680 metres, 10 minutes

This track connects Tripp Street with Totara Street. The track passes some impressive forest trees including matai with its needle leaves and ‘hammered’ bark.

Waihi Gorge Scenic Reserve

The scenic reserve lies along the north and south bank of the Waihi River. The bush-clad reserve and shallow river provide a lovely backdrop to the campground. This area contains some small groups of tōtara and kaikahikatea, as well as a stand of black beech/tawhairauriki. The river and reserve are separated from the road by a strip of private land. There is only one legal access point —through the campground. There are no walking tracks through the reserve.

Orari Gorge Scenic Reserve

Orari Gorge Scenic Reserve is mostly regenerating forest, though there are some large tōtara, kaikahikatea and matai. Within the reserve, kaikahikatea are regenerating particularly well.

There is a circular walk through the reserve.

Orari Gorge Track

3.3 km, 1 hour 30 min return

The track initially follows an old bush tramway, which was used to extract logs. Continue straight on though a mosaic of regenerating trees before climbing to an open high point. The return leg is through bush with some extensive stands of kānuka. Turn right at the track junction back to the car park.

Pioneer Park Conservation Area

Pioneer Park got its name in recognition of the early pioneer families who settled in this area; “to commemorate the courage and forbearance of the early settlers”. Mr Burke was the first settler to drive a bullock cart over the pass (which now bears his name) into the Mackenzie country. Within the reserve, a chimney is all that remains of the house he built in 1885.

There are two walks through the conservation area as well as a campground.

Homebush Track

Distance 1 km, 30 min return
Easy walk with stream crossing

This loop track starts from the campground, crossing a small stream and then gently climbing to a ridge where there are large kaikahikatea and tōtara. The most impressive is a stately tōtara about three metres in diameter. The track then returns via the Burke Hut memorial.

White Pine Track

Distance 5 km, 2 hours return
Easy tramping with stream crossings

This track starts from the campground and climbs through regenerating native bush and then through introduced forestry trees. The return leg drops steeply into a native bush gully and zigzags (seven times) across the stream before meeting the original track. A left turn takes you back to the campground.
